

Home Learning Policy

All home learning is to be set by the classroom teacher in accordance with the home learning calendar(updated each academic year – example below). It is the responsibility of the faculty leader to coordinate the planning, distribution, collection and quality assurance of all home learning. Home learning is distributed and collected by the classroom teacher during the relevant week as per the home learning calendar. Home learning is to be handed out at the start of the lesson and students are to record the title and hand in date in planners.

Home Learning flow chart

Guidelines for Setting of Home Learning Tasks

- Home learning is to be completed on yellow paper (some subject exceptions).
- Tasks should take approximately 20 minutes to complete.
- Tasks should require minimal resources to complete – unless provided to student.
- Home learning is to be linked to current learning.

Non-completion of home learning

It is the responsibility of the classroom teacher to ensure non-completion of home learning is followed through using the sanction system below. This is to ensure every student completes their home learning as per the home learning calendar.

1st failure to hand in Opportunity to re-submit following day.

2nd failure to hand in Subject detention – 30 minutes.

3rd failure to hand in Head of House detention – 30 minutes

4th failure to hand in Parental/Guardian meeting.

Example Home Learning Calendar

Week commencing	Home Learning
	HAND OUT	HAND IN
16 th April	English & Languages	Maths & Creative
23 rd April	Science & Technical	English & Languages
30 th April	Well Being & Humanities	Science & Technical
8 th May	Maths & Creative	Well Being & Humanities
14 th Mar	English & Languages	Maths & Creative
21st May	Science & Technical	English & Languages

Last updated: Paul McEvoy 15th June 2018