In this space tell us about your proudest achievements:

I studied abroad at the university of Sevilla in southern Spain where I learned to speak Spanish - I learned a lot about the culture there and met lots of interesting people. A couple of years later I also went to work and travel around Australia, I had lots of fun and met some life long friends there. I'm proud to be a languages teacher at Oasis Academy and love hearing about the many languages that are spoken there - I'm currently learning German and hope one day to be able to teach that too!
