The primary school I went to before Oasis Academy Oldham was:

Echelford School – but it was a very long time ago!

In this space tell us about your proudest achievements:

My proudest achievement was becoming father to my daughter, seeing her grow up and become a happy little person who loves reading, arts and crafts and finding out about things.

After that, my proudest moments have been qualifying as a teacher at Oasis Academy Oldham, starting off as a trainee in 2017 and working my way up to Head of History.

I am also proud of my achievements at university where I was lucky enough to study for many years and gain a PhD in 2015.
